TO WHOMSOEVER IT MAY CONCERN

This is to certify that Ms Jayanti Rana interned with CRY from 23rd May, 2019 to 10th July, 2019. During her internship she worked with CRY's NGO partner SWATI at Tigri.

She did following assignments during her tenure:

- Conducted sessions on Sanitation and Personal Hygiene through innovative methods like skits, group discussions, IEC material development etc.
- Conducted sessions on 'Best out of Waste'.
- Conducted academic support sessions for children in Child Activity Centre who had either dropped out of school or were never enrolled.

As an intern, Jayanti has not only been professionally competent but is also very diligent, communicative and focused. We hope that this experience has helped sharpen her overall understanding on child rights and she will be able to perform well in any similar future assignments.

We trust that she will continue to keep in touch with CRY and would always remain an advocate of Child Rights.

Wish her all the best.

TO WHOMSOEVER IT MAY CONCERN

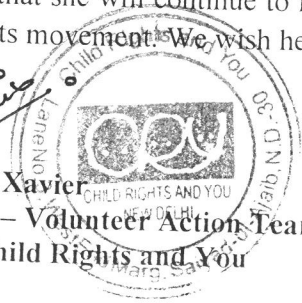

This is to certify that Ms. Mahima Malik has interned with CRY – Child Rights and You from 15 May 2019 – 19th July 2019. During the period of her internship, she worked with children from our project intervention area at East Delhi in East Delhi Project Intervention Area. She undertook the following activities during her tenure –

- She has been instrumental in facilitating remedial support to children on essential concepts which included but were not limited to English and Math, wherein she promoted learning through fun activities like games, dance and talent show to arouse the interest of the students.
- She, along with her fellow interns collected data regarding inadequate water supply in the area and took several steps including contacting the municipal authorities to solve the issue. She also worked towards developing a questionnaire to collect information related to health, hygiene and education of children.
- She was a dance trainer for 30 children from our project at Indrapuram. The children trained by her performed to an audience of almost 250 people at an event held at the Bureau of Police Research and Development.
- She, along with a couple of interns conducted a comprehensive module on body positivity, adolescent health and peer pressure for children at our projects at Shahbad Diary and Rohini. The workshops reached out to almost 150 children from across our project.
- She was also responsible for the documentation and archiving of the internship programme for the North from the period between April – June 2019.

As an intern, Ms. Mahima has not only been professionally competent but has also proved herself to be extremely diligent, focussed and communicative. She is open to feedback and all through her internship, she was actively involved in contributing her best towards her tasks. We hope that this experience has helped sharpen her overall understanding of child rights and she will be able to perform well in any similar future assignments and remain an advocate of child rights.

We trust that she will continue to keep in touch with CRY and work towards a building of a child rights movement. We wish her all the luck for her future endeavours.
