

Report on Implementation Meeting at Bilbao

As part of the Tuning India project, Dr.Sanjay Kedia, Assistant Professor, participated in an Implementation Meeting of the Tuning India Project held at University of Deusto, Spain, during July 1-4, 2019, alongwith 14 other participants from all over India.

The objective of the meeting was to discuss the steps involved in redesign the University level programmes as per the Tuning approach.

Dr.Kedia prepared the outline for the four-year integrated B.Sc.B.Ed. of IISU, Jaipur, it in terms of the following: social need for the programme, future field and identification of sector of employability and occupation, description of degree profile, defining of competencies and formulating of learning outcomes at programme level, etc.