The play was all about atrocities and humiliation faced by the Dalits in our Indian society in the past and also in the present context. The students performed their characters very well and tried to showcase the reality of the play and their roles to the audience. The set and the background music of the play was also relative to the theme of the play which made the play more realistic. At the end of the play every actor told the audience that today also there is humiliation done towards Dalits by quoting various recent examples. The audience really enjoyed the play which brought the play to an end.

On Monday 10th September 2018, to celebrate the “Munshi Premchand Jayanti” one of his famous play “SADGATI” was performed by the students of COSD Theatre studies of The IIS University. Sadgati’ a Story written by the famous story writer Munshi Prem Chandra. The play was all about atrocities and humiliation faced by the Dalits in our Indian society in the past and also in the present context. The students performed their characters very well and tried to showcase the reality of the play and their roles to the audience. The set and the background music of the play was also relative to the theme of the play which made the play more realistic. At the end of the play every actor told the audience that today also there is humiliation done towards Dalits by quoting various recent examples. The audience really enjoyed the play which brought the play to an end.

The 38 day Annual Theatre Workshop organized by the IISU Theatrical Society culminated into a play titled “Phool and Fools” directed by Vivek Kumar and designed by Hardik Shah. “Phool and Fools” is an adaptation of Harishankar Parsai’s satire “Naagfani ki Kahani”, that comments on the society in a very simple and extremely funny manner. The story revolves around two lovers, Astabhan and Nagfani, who decide to commit suicide because of academic failure and heartbreak, but instead fall in love with each other at the suicide point. .We the people of India have always had our views , opinions , and judgements about everything we see , hear , or do, but is creating a definition for " smile" correct?? Judging people as depressed , mental , character less , and less of a man on the basis of the way they laugh is not correct. The play spoke that the thing we need to understand is that we don't need a definition of " perfect laughter" , instead we need to change our mindsets . As one of the lines of the play say , by accepting , respecting , understanding ,communicating , being kind , being just towards others will eventually solve all our problems and issues. The play talks about the importance of " smile" in one's life and how it can change one's perspective towards different problems and give a better positive solution.

On the auspicious occasion of International Women's Day, on 08 March 2019, The IISU Theatrical Society performed a skit "HA KHOOBSURAT HU MEIN, KHUSH HU KI EK AURAT HU MEIN" to appreciate and celebrate womanhood. The skit resisted all the taboos society had regarding women and made them realize that they are "a form of art".

The skit had several scenes appreciating every woman in every field, even if it's a house wife staying at home and doing all the chores, while other members of the family go out to their respective jobs. It doesn't seem much because we barely notice her work. Every woman is worthy of this respect, even prostitutes. They are just like us and it's their job and it's their choice. Humanity teaches us to respect everyone, it teaches us that every being is equal. The skit was witnessed by H'norable Registrar Dr. Rakhi Gupta, Professors, teachers and the students of the university and was highly appreciated by the audience.

STAGE PLAY

Date : 2 Feb, 2019

Time:12:00PM

Venue: LMNIIT, Jaipur

No. of students participated : 20

Organizing Institute: LMNIIT, Jaipur

The students of the theatrical society of the IIS University participated in the annual youth fest organized by the LNM Institute of Information Technology 'Vivacity 2019'. The play staged by the COSD students of the IISU was an adaptation of the Munshi Premchand play -'Sadgati'.

About the play -

The play Sadgati (meaning salvation) is an adaptation of a story of the same name by the acclaimed and prolific Indian writer Munshi Premchand. The play is an eye opening reality of the lofty traditions of the Indian society which although steadily decreasing are still prevalent today. It shows a caricature of the society which is divided by various castes which serve no purpose other than to proclaim a superiority against the other similar institutions. The play is an indictment of the norms and traditions that have been followed by generations upon generations in favour of disparaging humanity and general integrity.

It follows the journey of a poor dalit named Dukhiya who slaves through life in search of a better life for his family and their well being, in a constant struggle against the ensuing discrimination. It also depicts the life of high society priests, of one in particular who fights with all his might to ensure the continuity of age old customs while at the same time salvage the last dredges of compassion and benevolence left in him. The play culminates in a tear jerker that would leave the audience thinking and wondering whether the cost of a life ruined is less than the beliefs that have been passed on without thought since time immemorial or is this the moment, we take a stand to bring about change.

It was a fiercely competitive event that culminated with Manipal University, Jaipur securing the first position and Xavier's college, Hathroi, Jaipur at the second place. The 3rd prize for the best director was awarded to Mr. Lohit Pareek.

It successfully restored the love and acknowledgement our country needs and how we as an individual can contribute to the welfare and development of our country. Lastly, the play is enclosed with a beautiful line which summarizes that our country will definitely shine bright if every person will stand by it and rather criticizing people will acknowledge it will do their work whole heartedly. The play revolves around how to be the citizen worth fighting for.

It was a fiercely competitive event that culminated The IIS University securing the 3rd position at the event. The students were accompanied by IISU faculty Ms. Gargi Saxena of the home science department. The participation and performance would not have been possible without the esteemed guidance of Dr. Aditi R. The students of the COSD Theatre Studies and IISU Theatrical Society participated in the stage play competition in the annual cultural fest organized by the JECRC foundation 'Rangsheela' on 18th March 2019.

The play staged by the students was an adaptation of the acclaimed Indian prolific writer Munshi Premchand's story 'Sadgati' which highlights the social stratification prevalent in the Indian society.

The play aims at creating awareness among the different factions of the society regarding the lofty norms and traditions that have been followed unquestioned and diligently since times immemorial and has increased the economic, cultural and social divide among the people.

Synopsis of the play -

The play Sadgati (meaning salvation) is an adaptation of a story of the same name by the acclaimed and prolific Indian writer Munshi Premchand.

The play is an eye opening reality of the lofty traditions of the Indian society which although steadily decreasing are still prevalent today. It shows a caricature of the society which is divided by various castes which serve no purpose other than to proclaim a superiority against the other similar institutions. The play is an indictment of the norms and traditions that have been followed by generations upon generations in favour of disparaging humanity and general integrity. It follows the journey of a poor dalit named Dukhiya who slaves through life in search of a better life for his family and their well being, in a constant struggle against the ensuing discrimination.

It also depicts the life of high society priests, of one in particular who fights with all his might to ensure the continuity of age old customs while at the same time salvage the last dredges of compassion and benevolence left in him. The play culminates in a tear jerker that would leave the audience thinking and wondering whether the cost of a life ruined is less than the beliefs that have been passed on without thought since time immemorial or is this the moment, we take a stand to bring about change.

The students chose to wear the color red because the color not only represents love but also attention. The colorful hand imprints on the faces of the performers depicted the various colors of life. Performing at Jairangam was an enlightening experience and the students of the IIS-University look forward to more such experiences.

Sashakt is the epitome of self empowerment. It is one of the most successful and powerful nukkads created at The IIS University that depicts the struggles that are faced by women in the present era and advises them to embolden their spirits and face their troubles head on without expecting any external aid or sustenance.

With its melodious jingles, the apt use of Shiv Tandav Stortam, uniquely choreographed dance moves and very moving and poignant yet prevailing themes that is so exclusively illustrated, Sashakt aims at informing the people and emphasizing on the fact that women are not weak and cannot be subdued by generations of all prevailing patriarchy if they believe in themselves and have the courage and the encouragement to stand up for themselves.

It was a wonderful opportunity given to us to perform at such an elevated and well known platform and we are grateful for it. The team consisted of 16 members comprising of students from the 1st,2nd and 3rd year of the college.

The students of the theatrical society of the IIS University participated in the annual youth fest "COSMOS" the event was held on 8 the January 2019. The street play named "HA HA HA NO!!" was performed by the students of the theatrical society of the university.

About the play-

We the people of India have always had our views , opinions , and judgements about everything we see , hear , or do, but is creating a definition for " smile" correct?? Judging people as depressed , mental , character less , and less of a man on the basis of the way they laugh is not correct. The play spoke that the thing we need to understand is that we don't need a definition of " perfect laughter" , instead we need to change our mindsets .As one of the lines of the play say , by accepting , respecting , understanding ,communicating , being kind , being just towards others will eventually solve all our problems and issues.The play talks about the importance of " smile" in one's life and how it can change one's perspective towards different problems and give a better positive solution. The HA HA HA HA NO!! Team stood third in the competition. Lastly the event was sum up by the encouraging words of the esteemed judges Lohit pareek and Ms. Sareeka pareek.

The students of the IISU Theatrical Society and the Universities Rotractors performed the acclaimed Nukkad Natak of the University 'Sashakt' for National Nukkad Natak Competition organized by RYLA Rotaract Club on 13th March 2019. Sashakt is the epitome of self empowerment. It is one of the most successful and powerful nukkads created at ICG that depicts the struggles that are faced by women in the present era and advises them to embolden their spirits and face their troubles head on without expecting any external aid or sustenance. With its melodious jingles, the apt use of Shiv Tandav Stortam, uniquely choreographed dance moves and very moving and poignant yet prevailing themes that is so exclusively illustrated, Sashakt aims at informing the people and emphasizing on the fact that women are not weak and cannot be subdued by generations of all prevailing patriarchy if they believe in themselves and have the courage and the encouragement to stand up for themselves. The video was recorded in the foyer of the college hostel. It was a wonderful opportunity given to us to perform at such an elevated and well known platform and we are grateful for it. The team consisted of 14 members comprising of students from the 1st,2nd and 3rd year of the college.
