

Report of Online Workshop on Identifying Reputed Journals for Publication

(18 September, 2021)

An Online workshop on Identifying Reputed Journals for Publication was organized by the Centre for Research, Innovation and Training (CRIT), IIS (Deemed to be University), Jaipur, on 18 September, 2021. The workshop was attended by 73 participants from all over the country. Prof. T.N.Mathur, Vice- Chancellor, IIS (Deemed to be University), Jaipur delivered the welcome address. The workshop was moderated by Dr. Aasatha Saxena, Department of Journalism and Mass Communication of and Dr. Shweta Kastiya, Department of Management. The Resource Person for the workshop was Dr. Srishti Agarwal, Assistant Professor, School of Management, MIT World Peace University, Pune. The workshop was organized with the objectives of familiarizing the participants about the methods for identifying good journals for publication.

Dr. Srishti discussed about the problems faced by researchers and emphasized the necessity of Pre-Publication Preparation. She emphasized that appropriate publication outlet should be selected. The important aspects to be kept be considered are the Journal Metrics. The metrics details include the Cite Score, Impact Factor, SNIP and SJR values. She stated that the researchers should make efforts to get their papers published in indexed journal and also look for renowned publication houses like Springer, Elsevier etc. She also cautioned the participants about the predatory journals.

Prof. K.S. Sharma, Advisor, CRIT, IIS(Deemed to be University), Jaipur highlighted the importance of searching indexed journals in order to enhance the quality of publications Dr. Charu Jhamaria, Department of Environmental Science delivered the vote of thanks.

The participants also raised several queries regarding the criteria s to be followed while selecting the indexed journal. Overall the workshop proved to be enriching for the participants.
