IISU Merit Scholarship

The IIS (deemed to be university) has instituted this scholarship for all those students who excel in academics in order to recognize and appreciate their efforts. Eligible candidates from Semester I and II/ Semester III and IV are given a trophy, Certificate of Merit and a cash prize of Rs. 2100 (first position) and Rs. 1500 (second position) in the subsequent year.

Eligibility Criteria:

The list of selected candidates shall be displayed on the notice board and will be awarded at the Annual Function.

Rules for Award of Merit Positions

Student excelling in academics, co-curricular & extracurricular activities are felicitated through various awards and scholarships instituted by the University on the Annual Day.

1. The merit positions will be determined on the basis of average of SCWA/SGPA of the students taken for the academic year in consideration.
2. The maximum merit positions to be awarded in a class shall be three (3), on condition that the strength of the class is more than five (5). In case the strength is five (5) or less than five (5), not more than 50% students in the class shall be awarded.
3. If two or more students obtain the same average SCWA/SGPA, their average percentage of marks will be taken into consideration for deciding their merit.
4. In case where average percentage marks of students are also equal for the relevant period, the merit will be decided on the basis of the marks obtained by them in the last semester examination.
5. Merit will be awarded only when the student has obtained SCWA of more than 60 in each semester examination/or has obtained a GPA of 7.00 and grade of 'A' in each semester in consideration.
