Internship Cover Letter

1/55, Roshan Marg, Chitrakoot, Vaishali Nagar, Jaipur- 302021

Respected College Faculty,

I am writing in support of Kavita Choudhary's Internship at Art Idea Studio, Jaipur. She approached the firm in July'20 and started working as an Intern in August'20 till January'21. A student, of Bachelor In Visual Arts, seemed sincere and quiet in starting but later was known to be not only assiduous but also a candidate with outspoken personality with amazing and enthusiastic ideas in mind. Kavita is very adaptable and accepting student, and tries her best to mould herself according to the required environment, in order to convert her weaknesses into strengths. As an Intern, she developed skills in field of visual arts, gained practical exposure while working with the firm in various environments where installations, visual arts exhibitions and disparate types of exhibits of paintings were done. When Kavita first came to learn, she was curious like a child to clear doubts, the level of doubts and her interest in same, indicated how eagerly she gets involved into the area of interest she wants to gain knowledge in. This quality proves her dedication in regards to the field. A hardworking visual arts aspirant, who never steps back to expose herself into new environment with new challenges and difficulties. Kavita, has this very unique quality of trying endlessly, even after being failed and incorrect. I have personally liked this quality of hers because, this makes a person hard work tougher and tougher for the cause one aims for. Kavita not only has courage to get pointed out on an incongruous suggestion, but she learns from it and does not hesitate to more suggestions and doubts. She believes in speaking her voice out regardless of being judged. These were some unique qualities that I had observed in this child, which I feel every single one should acquire. She also gained a fat amount of practical knowledge from which she could handle and excel in events of management or in show casement of visual arts skills. The amount of learning, Kavita acquired, in the process is, commendable in such a young age with a limited span of time of six.

It was an engaging experience to mentor such a hardworking and dedicated child. I am sure she will definitely excel in the field she will work in, and I loved to accommodate a bright child like her.

She believes in speaking her voice out regardless of being judged. These were some unique qualities that I had observed in this child, which I feel every single one should acquire. She also gained a fat amount of practical knowledge from which she could handle and excel in events of management or in show casement of visual arts skills. The amount of learning, Mimansi acquired, in the process is, commendable in such a young age with a limited span of time of six.

It was an engaging experience to mentor such a hardworking and dedicated child. I am sure she will definitely excel in the field she will work in, and I loved to accommodate a bright child like her.
